Ambassadors Paint Rosy Picture of Future In Cleveland

APPEAR ON PEACE SOCIETY PROGRAM

Say Europe Wants Peace; Justice Held Way To End of Wars

Cleveland, May 8.—That international peace is destined to become a reality within a reasonably short number of years, is the universal opinion of members of the American Peace society today as a result of the outspoken assurance given them by the representatives of three of the world's leading powers.

The society, which today celebrates its centennial, is sponsoring the world conference on international justice here this week.

At the third general assembly of the meet last night, Great Britain, France and Germany through their respective ambassadors, to the United States, extended their support and willingness to co-operate for international justice.

Theodore E. Burton, congressman, and president of the American Peace society, presided over the assembly and introduced the speakers, including Sir Esme Howard, Great Britain's ambassador to the United States; Herr Friedrich Wilhelm Von Prittwitz, Germany's ambassador to the United States; M. Paul Claudel, Britain's ambassador to the United States; and Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, formerly Norway's ambassador to the court of St. James.

Speaking of the foreign situation, Ambassador Howard said:

"Europe Wants Peace
"With every year that passes, with every month that passes, we see an improvement in the European situation.

"Nowhere in Europe today is there more impressive evidence of a desire for peace and a will for international co-operation than in Germany. The country is a very different Germany from that of only a few years ago. The same may be said of France where the mass of people only hunger and thirst for peace, and I need hardly say that in England the one fixed idea common to all classes is that we must have peace, since another war would inevitably plunge us and the rest of Europe into such a bottomless pit of ruin and despair that it would be the end of our civilization."

Ambassador Claudel said in part: "Among the great words, I know of no greater one than peace, the word of words which made 20 centuries ago the whole substance of the Heavenly and everlasting message."

"For many years peace societies have labored for the establishment of peace."

FAMED ROBBER OF MAIL TRAIN SHOT TO DEATH

Willie Jackson's Body Is Found In Alley Early Today In Chicago

GANGLAND JUSTICE GIVEN POLICE SAY

Had Been Sought For His Part In Grand Trunk Mail Holdup

Chicago, May 8.—Willie Jackson, object of a nation wide search as one of the bandits who robbed a Grand Trunk mail train of $133,000 here last February, will never face a jury.

He was found, shot to death, in a south side alley early today.

Jackson had been named by captured members of the gang as the custodian of most of the loot. A single pistol bullet, fired into the back of his head, ended his life. He lay face up beside a new automobile bearing the New York license number 2-F-8866.

Keys to the car were found in the dead man's pocket. He was garbed in expensive clothes and wore a gray felt hat purchased in Olean, N. Y.

Jackson was identified through the finger-print record at the bureau of identification.

The slain bandit, according to police, had been named by "Limpin" Charlie" Cleaver, leader of the Grand Trunk mail robbery gang, as one of two men who had been entrusted with the job of hiding the loot.

Lived High In New York
Virgil Litsinger was the other man named, police said. All but these two men had been accounted for. Police trailed them to central Illinois, thence to St. Louis and finally to New Orleans where the trail was lost.

It is believed Jackson went to New York and lived high while his comrades in the crime languished in jail, unable to raise high bonds. These men, Cleaver, William Donovan and Frank Meccia, asked often about Jackson and Litsinger, according to jail attaches, and swore savagely when told nothing had been heard from them.

The police theory is that underworld friends of the double-crossed bandits finally located Jackson despite his careful attempts to disguise himself, and meted out the summary justice of gangland.

In Cleaver's home $17,600 of the loot was found. The rest of it, according to the men under arrest, was entrusted to Jackson and Litsinger. A renewed search for the cache of missing currency was started in the neighborhood in which Jackson's body was found.

TRUAX ENTERS SENATE FIGHT

Formal Announcement Of His Candidacy Made; Has 2 Opponents

Lancaster, O., May 8.—Charles V. Truax of Bucyrus, state director of agriculture, was today formally in the race for the Democratic nomination for United States senator for the full six-year term beginning March 4, next year.

Truax's formal announcement for the senate brought the list of active candidates up to three. He is opposed by George White, of Marietta, former congressman, and Charles Wharton, of Kenton.

U. S. Senator Cyrus Locher of Cleveland, Democrat, who was director of commerce of Ohio when Gov. V. Donahue, last month, appointed him as senator, due to the death of the late U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis, has announced that he will be a candidate to succeed himself for the short term beginning Dec. 15, next, and ending March 4, 1933, being the unexpired portion of the six-year term to which Willis was elected in November, 1926.

U. S. Senator Simeon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, Republican, whose six-year term ends March 4, next, is expected to be a candidate for re-election. Chief Justice C. T. Marshall of the Ohio supreme court, recently announced that he will be a Republican candidate for U. S. senator. Other Republicans are expected to announce their senatorial candidacies soon.

OPPOSES WATSON FOR DELEGATES IN STATE TODAY

Runs Against Senator's Powerful Organization Backed by "Allies"

WATSON PREDICTS VICTORY AT POLLS

Sees Triumph Despite The Recent Scandals Which Jailed His Men

Washington, May 8.—Herbert Hoover faces the biggest test he has yet encountered in his quest of the Republican presidential nomination in today's primary in Indiana.

If Hoover can defeat decisively the favorite-son candidacy of Senator James E. Watson, backed as it is by a state organization which for efficiency is second probably to none in the country, then the prospect of "stopping Hoover" at Kansas City admittedly becomes a forlorn one.

If Watson emerges victorious by any appreciable margin, it means renewed hope and courage for "the allies" who have pooled their resources and made common cause of their opposition to the leading candidate.

Hoover's victory in Ohio gave "the allies" a distant air, but in that case they explained it away by pointing to the premature death of Senator Frank B. Willis, Ohio's favorite son, just before the election. Willis' death played havoc with the organization line-up in Ohio.

"Hoover beat a dead man in Ohio," they said. "In Indiana it will be different."

Today will tell the story. The result in Indiana will not be decisive in itself, but it may very well prove a highly determining factor in the struggle that lies ahead at Kansas City.

Senator Watson has advised his friends in Washington that he will win. He has campaigned the state with his customary vigor, and his personal organization, variously estimated at around 100,000 votes, is said to be largely intact. He expects to lose some of the larger cities in the state, but he also expects to make up for that in the rural districts.

Indiana is more rural than Ohio, and sentiment for the McNary-Haugen bill is believed to be more solid than was the case across the line to the east. Watson was a leader in the fight to enact the bill, while Hoover, rightly or wrongly has (Continued on Page 4)

MARYLAND GIVES VOTE TO HOOVER

Instructed Delegation Is Secretary's; Ritchie Also Winner

Baltimore, May 8.—Herbert Hoover will have Maryland's 19 votes in the Republican national convention.

Virtually complete returns today from yesterday's primary showed the cabinet candidate for the presidency scored an easy victory. He was unopposed by any other candidate.

Maryland Democrats will cast their votes for Gov. Albert C. Ritchie at Houston, and later switch to Gov. Al Smith whenever the Smith managers desire them. Ritchie is in favor of Smith's nomination.

Senator Wm. Cabell Bruce, Democrat, was easily renominated. Mrs. Virginia Peters-Arkush, his opponent, ran poorly.

Bruce will be opposed in November by Ex-Gov. Phillips Lee Goldsborough, who was unopposed for the Republican senatorial nomination.

The figures showed that in 994 precincts out of 1,184 in the state, Hoover received 22,455 votes, as against 4,693 for an uninstructed delegation.

In 1,036 precincts out of 1,184, Bruce, for senator, received 40,777 votes, against 5,039 for Mrs. Peters-Parkhurst.

The outcome of the Republican contest made certain that ex-Senator Wm. P. Jackson of Salisbury will be re-elected Republican national committeeman.

HOW DO YOU FIGURE?

Are you getting tired of the old home town?

Do you yearn to go out where the lights are brighter and more numerous?

How do you figure you would fare where competition is keen and ability above the ordinary, is required?

What can you do in an exceptional way?

Are you far above the average in your particular line?

If you are not, better stay where you are. There is more satisfaction often in being a big duck in a little puddle, than a little duck in a big puddle, to use a homely idiom.

In the busy, bustling world there is little demand for the person of ordinary talent.

Stay where you are known and where there are not so many others who are so much better.

On the other hand, if you are unusually gifted, and you cannot find the opportunities you need to develop your gift, you should by all means go where the chances are better.

But be certain you are thus gifted before you make the move.

Then when you do make it, and are established, with ability beyond the ordinary and in places where your gifts are essential, don't expect to command immediate recognition, with its emolument.

First procure opportunity to display your wares, and it may take some little time to reach the discerning eye and ear, at that.

AMERICA'S COLONIAL CITY

Proponents of the movement to save landmarks of American communities, point to Annapolis, Md., as one of the chief cities to conserve its mementos of the past.

Annapolis has been preserved as America's most truly colonial city.

Maryland was one of the states which spared neither men nor wealth to help bring independence to the American colonies, and in Maryland's statehouse there are gathered together relics, paintings and the like of not only rare historic value, but without likenesses anywhere.

Everyone remembers the story of Charles Carroll of Maryland, who headed the delegation chosen at Annapolis to represent the province of Maryland in the Continental congress.

When it came his turn to sign the Declaration of Independence there were some bantering remarks as to whether the signers would hang separately or together if the revolution should fail. Some one said Carroll would have a chance to escape, inasmuch as there were so many Carrolls the British would not know which one to seize.

Whereupon Carroll added "of Carrollton" after his name, with the remark that now the British would have no trouble in identifying him.

Maryland and Annapolis are rich in history, in legend and in lore. And richest of all the Maryland cities in this respect is Annapolis.

What Others Say

NEITHER NEEDED OR WANTED
It is said that "powerful influences" are at work in America preparing for the clandestine entry into the United States of Count Michael Karolyi, former president of Hungary.

Why are not all these "influences" jerked into the open, so that we may see and become acquainted with them? We know a lot of them, but quite a number are kept in the back ground, under cover. Let 'em come forth. The key men of America extend to them a standing invitation. Just why should the nondescript Karolyi come here? He made a muck of it in his own country—what could he have to tell Americans bred in the tenure of democracy?

A few years ago the wife of this man attempted to come into America. Secretary of State Kellogg refused her admittance, and immediately every red-tinted crank and influence in the country went on an emotional debauch, with George Sylvester Viereck leading the snuff-slinging "outraged" company.

What does this country want with the Karolyis? Characteristic of their type of mind and understanding of the principles of decent free government is the plan of the Hungarian politician to enter this country from Mexico. He will try to sneak into a land which has no need for his kind and which does not want him or his mix-muddled views of political philosophy. Born a count and developed a no-account, from the virile viewpoint of the western political mind, he would be hooted about as useful and about as welcome as a certain well known small but very self-assertive animal of our countryside.

This man has about as much to offer to American intelligence as a Digger Indian who had failed to learn the English language and yet insisted upon trying to make the public understand its need of his "big medicine," composed of a goat's heel and a toad's left hind claw and some pieces of colored glass.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

RESIGNATION OF MOORE

The resignation of John Bassett Moore as a judge of the Permanent Court of International Justice naturally will rouse a good deal of speculation in diplomatic circles.

The reason advanced for the withdrawal of Justice Moore is his intention to devote all of his time to the completion of a treatise on international law. Are there other reasons? Did the American member come to feel out of place on the bench while this country stands aloof from the protocol of the court?

The Washington government had no part in the selection of Justice Moore to a seat in the World Court. In accordance with the tribunal's constitution, his candidacy was among those presented to the council and assembly of the league by American representatives of The Hague Court of Arbitration.

Possibly the council and the assembly were influenced in voting him in because at that time, in 1921, it seemed likely that the United States would become a court member and they desired to encourage any such tendency. However, the resignation of Justice Moore after seven years of service finds the United States still on the outside of the protocol, and there is little or no prospect that it ever will adhere.

The choice of a successor to Mr. Moore is something with which the American government has no concern. The decision will rest, as in 1921, with the council and assembly of the league. If the American delegation to The Hague tribunal is again asked to recommend nominees, and if an American is elected to replace Justice Moore, Uncle Sam will be under no obligation to the league or to the court; and being an adherent of neither, this country will have no cause to feel disappointed in case an American is not chosen.

Meanwhile the international court loses a very able jurist whom it will be hard to replace.—Detroit Free Press.

THE ANSWER IS NO

Among those who actively oppose the tentative government program of completing and constructing western irrigation projects at a cost of $350,000,000 is L. T. Taber, of Ohio, president of the National grange.

Testifying before a congressional committee at Washington, Mr. Taber said these expensive projects should be held in abeyance until the farmers' depreciated dollar reaches par. He explained that the nation needs no increased agricultural products and that increased production would further depress prices and add to the burden of the farmers.

Not all the iridescent dreams about irrigation have come true even when the costly projects are completed in times of agricultural prosperity. And of course Mr. Taber is right. There now are more than 20,000,000 acres of abandoned farm lands in the United States and some students of the subject say more of the least profitable land must be abandoned before the farm relief problem can be solved completely.

Is there any reason for spending $350,000,000 of the taxpayers' money to make farm conditions worse than they are now? All the answers, except those of a few land promotion and railroad interests, are "no."—Toledo Blade.

The Stars Say—

For Wednesday, May 9.

By Genevieve Kemble.

THE sidereal forces in operation on this day lend themselves to rather unsettled and unfavorable conditions as they relate to business and general undertakings, but would a most friendly influence in social, domestic, artistic and affectional activities. There may be a tendency to finance these, or to be indulgent, but discretion and firm control are enjoined otherwise. New ventures had best be postponed and all writings cautiously signed.

Those whose birthday it is may have a very unwelcome and unsettled conditions in business affairs, but their social domestic and affectional affiliations should bring much pleasure and should flourish. Be careful with new ventures and sign all writings with caution.

A child born on this day although being restless and unsettled will be accomplished and popular.

Men must reap the things they sow. Force from force must ever flow.

CURIOUS AILMENTS COME FROM NERVES

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Good health depends upon decent care of the body. It depends upon decent care of the nervous system. Let the strongest man neglect the rights and demands of his being and it will not be long before some physical penalty is exacted.

The late war was followed by an endless procession of invalids. In Brussels a few years ago, I saw a man carrying on his back the living trunk with the head and single arm of a fellow soldier. The other members of this unfortunate patriot had been shot away.

But it was not by shell and shrapnel that the war did its greatest damage. The brain and nervous system of many a soldier suffered from the worries, the distress, the danger, the loss of sleep and the miseries of the war. Greater harm was done by shock of nerves than by the cruelties of lead and iron.

Nervous exhaustion is responsible for many an ailment. The outside covering of the body, the skin, is often a mirror, reflecting the condition of the nerves.

There is a disease called "Lichen Planus." It makes its first appearance on the skin as a red or lilac tinted spot. To begin with, this glistening, burnished solid elevation is about the size of the head of a pin, not regular in shape but flat or hollow on the top. Later, a number of these spots may run together and form a considerable patch, sometimes the patches become rough and scaly.

The eruption may appear anywhere, but it is likely to be found on the wrists and inside the elbow, in the bend back of the knee, or on the inner surface of the thigh. It is rarely found on the face or head. Sometimes it forms as a line or stripe extending from below the knee to the hip. In women the irritation of a corset may bring out the eruption around the waist. Some times the lining membrane of the mouth may be affected.

There may or may not be itching of the skin. At times it may be pronounced, so severe indeed as to prevent sleep.

The acute type clears up in a month or two, but the chronic form may run on for years.

I have said that worry and tired nerves are frequently responsible for this disease. The treatment is obvious. Relief from business or household cares is essential.

Right living, simple food, lots of sleep and fresh air day and night, are essential factors in the cure. Stimulants, tea and coffee should be used in greatest moderation.

In view of the obscure origin of this disease, consideration must be given the possibility of absorption of poisons from teeth, gums, nose and tonsils. Likewise, it should be made sure that the kidneys and bowels are functioning properly.

For the itching, hypodermic of soda, one drachm to the ounce of water, will promote comfort. Bicarbonate of soda applied in a similar way may prove grateful.

Every case must be studied for its individual features. No universal rule of medication can be prescribed. The resources of the doctor are limited. The eruption may appear anywhere, but it is likely to be found on the wrists and inside the elbow, in the bend back of the knee, or on the inner surface of the thigh. It is rarely found on the face or head. Sometimes it forms as a line or stripe extending from below the knee to the hip. In women the irritation of a corset may bring out the eruption around the waist. Some times the lining membrane of the mouth may be affected.

There may or may not be itching of the skin. At times it may be pronounced, so severe indeed as to prevent sleep.

The acute type clears up in a month or two, but the chronic form may run on for years.

I have said that worry and tired nerves are frequently responsible for this disease. The treatment is obvious. Relief from business or household cares is essential.

Right living, simple food, lots of sleep and fresh air day and night, are essential factors in the cure. Stimulants, tea and coffee should be used in greatest moderation.

In view of the obscure origin of this disease, consideration must be given the possibility of absorption of poisons from teeth, gums, nose and tonsils. Likewise, it should be made sure that the kidneys and bowels are functioning properly.

For the itching, hypodermic of soda, one drachm to the ounce of water, will promote comfort. Bicarbonate of soda applied in a similar way may prove grateful.

Every case must be studied for its individual features. No universal rule of medication can be prescribed. The resources of the doctor are limited. The eruption may appear anywhere, but it is likely to be found on the wrists and inside the elbow, in the bend back of the knee, or on the inner surface of the thigh. By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Good health depends upon decent care of the body. It depends upon decent care of the nervous system. Let the strongest man neglect the rights and demands of his being and it will not be long before some physical penalty is exacted.

The late war was followed by an endless procession of invalids. In Brussels a few years ago, I saw a man carrying on his back the living trunk with the head and single arm of a fellow soldier. The other members of this unfortunate patriot had been shot away.

But it was not by shell and shrapnel that the war did its greatest damage. The brain and nervous system of many a soldier suffered from the worries, the distress, the danger, the loss of sleep and the miseries of the war. Greater harm was done by shock of nerves than by the cruelties of lead and iron.

Nervous exhaustion is responsible for many an ailment. The outside covering of the body, the skin, is often a mirror, reflecting the condition of the nerves.

There is a disease called "Lichen Planus." It makes its first appearance on the skin as a red or lilac tinted spot. To begin with, this glistening, burnished solid elevation is about the size of the head of a pin, not regular in shape but flat or hollow on the top. Later, a number of these spots may run together and form a considerable patch, sometimes the patches become rough and scaly.

The eruption may appear anywhere, but it is likely to be found on the wrists and inside the elbow, in the bend back of the knee, or on the inner surface of the thigh. It is rarely found on the face or head. Sometimes it forms as a line or stripe extending from below the knee to the hip. ## SPEAKERS of peace among nations and during those many years the only answer was the flashing of guns and the hurrah of marching armies. But today another answer is coming—it is only a whisper—but it is a whisper which is breathed from every point of the compass.

Peace is Mocked Word
"No word was ever more mocked than peace. No word attracted more derision from cheap cynics and from slanderers of human nature. But no critics, no doubts, no mockeries, no temporary difficulties will be sufficient to bury a word which is not only the expression of the most actual and pressing necessity, but also the hope of the whole human race."

Baron Prittwitz, spoke in part as follows:
"Peace is largely a matter of human faith and as such has come to be borne in the heart of man. Only if the majority of men believe that peace can and must be definitely established, will it be established. A lasting peace can only be established by the triumph of justice. Only if peaceful methods are arrived at in settling all disputes that have led to wars in the past, can war be avoided."

The German republic which I have the honor to represent at this meeting, has, by joining the League of Nations, by signing the treaties of Locarno and by subscribing the optional clause of the statute of the permanent court of international justice, clearly indicated the direction in which its policy is proceeding in Europe, by signing an arbitration and conciliation treaty with the United States Germany has further evidenced its good will to promote international friendship across the ocean."

Commissions Meet Today
Finals of the Ohio inter-collegiate peace oratorical contest closed at the Ohio day program at the conference Monday. Paul R. Sheats, of Heidelberg, being declared winner by six judges selected from visiting delegates. The youthful orators took the United States to task for its attitude since the war toward peace.

Today's program was to include commission sessions on the keynote of international peace as sounded at the opening gathering by President Burton. Among the commissions to meet were: International Implications of Industry; International Implications of Education; International Implications of Religion; International Implications of Social Agencies, and co-ordination of the efforts for peace.

Included among Tuesday's speakers are: Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; Prof. Merle E. Curti, of Smith college; Lerley Gordon, executive secretary of the Church Peace Union; Raymond Rich, secretary of the World Peace Foundation; Stanislaw Lepowski, counselor of the Polish Legation; Judge Florence E. Allen, Ohio supreme court; Paul Millyukoff, former member of the Russian Duma; and Rev. Gill Robb Wilson, D. D., chairman, American Legion.

been accused of having influenced the Coolidge veto of the measure.

Scandals Play Part

The biggest question mark in today's voting, as calculated by the practical politicians of Washington is the effect which recent Republican scandals in Indiana has had in the popular mind. More than a dozen Republican politicians and office-holders in Indiana have either been indicted or sent to jail in the last few years, and while Watson has never personally been touched by these scandals the central figures in them have been organization men.

If the voters hold Watson, as head of the organization, responsible it may mean a Hoover victory. If not, then the hard-boiled politicians of the capital do not believe Hoover can defeat one of the most powerful state machines in the country.

Hoover enters the voting in Indiana today with a total of approximately 352 committee delegates out of the 1,089 that will make up the Kansas City convention. Should he win Indiana's 33, it would bring his score to date to 385, or only 169 short of the required majority.

"Bootleg" Hunting of Ivory Threatening Elephant Extinction

Paris, May 8.—Bootleg hunting permits and native appreciation of the high cost of ivory are threatening the extinction of African elephants.

This is reported by Monsieur de Laborie who returned to Paris with an expedition sent out by the Geographical Society and the Museum of Natural History to ascertain the number of variety of game in Central Africa.

Big game hunters from abroad make scarcely any inroads on elephant herds, he said, but natives at last have realized what an ivory tusk is worth and are recklessly cutting down this source of wealth.

Fire-hunting is forbidden, but M. de Laborie found that fire-hunters, are frequently held despite the vigilance of jungle authorities. In fire-hunting, he explained, the natives lay down a circle of flame over a large area. Some of the smaller animals may escape but the elephants are either burned to death or killed as they attempt to stagger through the fire to safety. He estimated that between 100 and 300 elephants are killed in every fire-hunt.

Markets

OPENING IRREGULAR
New York, May 8.—The market was irregular at opening today with trends generally higher. Radio lost 2 points at 203; U. S. Steel was down more than a point at 146 1/2; and General Motors declined 1/2 to 208. International Combustion Engineering sold up 2 points at 63 for 25,000 shares; General Electric was up 1 1/2 at 170 1/2; Bosch Magneto up 1 1/2 at 33 1/2; Westinghouse up 1/2 at 108 1/2; Missouri Pacific up 1/2 at 62 1/2; Woolworth up 1/2 at 189 1/2.

A raging, roaring market for the high priced speculative favorites was maintained in the first period today. Brokerage houses were swamped with outside orders for Radio, General Motors, International Combustion, General Electric, the airplane stocks, International Nickel, and other star performers in yesterday's hectic session. Not within the memory of the present generation of stock brokers has the volume of public trading been on such a large scale as at present.

Opening 2 points lower, at 203, Radio boomed ahead to around 209 in the first half hour; General Motors moved up fractionally and then dropped back 3 points to 205 1/2; International Combustion snapped ahead to 65 for a further 4-point gain, on reports of Durant and Cullen buying; General Electric, American Can and other favorites sold up 1 to 3 points. It was simply a repetition of the uncontrolled bullish enthusiasm running wild with the market as in recent sessions.

Considerable profit taking appeared in the industrial and motor stocks before the end of the first hour, and there were evidences that earnings reports, so long ignored, were finally being taken into consideration as a factor in determining stock values. Hudson Motors continued to move downward as the result of poorer-than-expected first quarterly income. United States Steel lost a point and Chrysler Motor was under selling pressure. Oils were irregular and rails again inactive.

A substantial improvement in American business and an increase in the purchasing power of the dollar, as reported by reliable economic bureaus and agencies, helped to stimulate bullish sentiment in the financial district, and to direct speculative purchases to common stocks of the well-rated corporations, for the "long pull." Only on such a basis could non-dividend stocks be skyrocketed to prices which seem absurdly out of proportion to the current scale of net earnings.

Buying of Canadian Pacific subsided as mysteriously as it started near the middle of yesterday's session. Rock Island was strong in advance of an important directors' meeting, and Wabash common moved up a few points. The balance of the rail list was inactive but firm. Oils slumped in the second hour as "switching" to other departments of the market continued.

The call loan market was unchanged, with the penalty rate at 5 1/2 per cent. Cotton and grain were steady, with prices slightly higher.

PRESBYTERIANS AND METHODISTS IN MERGER PLAN

Greatest Church Union In World's History Will Be Suggested

Chicago, May 8.—The greatest church union in the history of the world, involving a fourth of the people in the United States, will be launched this month, it was announced here today.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal churches will attempt a merger both of members and of property. The two churches, in all their branches have 10,000,000 active members and 14,000,000 adherents, including Sunday school members.

Property involved in the giant spiritual combine totals nearly a billion dollars, in 35,000 churches throughout the country, as well as schools, hospitals, philanthropic enterprises and other investments.

Millions of Members
In the northern branches of the two churches there are 7,000,000 active members and 10,000,000 adherents; in the southern branches 3,000,000 members and 4,000,000 adherents.

Commissioners in both churches will be appointed immediately. It was learned to investigate the problems connected with the proposed union.

During the month the proposal will come before the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Kansas City, and the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at Tulsa, Okla.

For the first time in the history of American religious history, according to local officials of both churches, the difficulties attendant to a merger are not looked upon as unmountable.

Various attempts as such a union have been made before but minor disagreements on teaching as well as on property involved blocked action. Property of the Methodist Episcopal church is estimated in value at $500,000,000 in 25,000 churches. The Presbyterian church has 10,000 churches valued at $300,000,000.

These tremendous valuations constitute one of the most complicated problems to be solved, it was understood. In many communities there are churches of the two denominations close together, and the merger might mean elimination of some of these duplications in religious service.

Serious Problem

Division of the Protestant churches, with resultant weakening of all sects, has been a serious problem in the minds of ecclesiastical leaders. The recent merger of Canadian churches, including the Congregational church and the two involved in the proposed American merger, has been successful, it was pointed out. A similar plan is proposed in this country.

Completion of the unification would be made as quickly as possible, it was understood, after the preliminary differences were ironed out.

Most of these differences, however, do not involve questions of teachings or dogma, but merely adjustments necessary in such a large combination.

Leaders of both churches in Chicago district have expressed approval of tentative plans which are expected to mature into a definite policy this month.

Even other leaders in both churches it was learned that other denominations are expected to follow into the merger when it is seen to be successful.

The completed merger, according to those church leaders would include more than one-fourth the persons in the United States, as members and adherents.

Two Distinct Types Of Co-eds at State Found by Writers

Columbus, May 8.—Two distinct types of college co-eds have emerged into being since the inauguration of the physical education department at Ohio State university, so believe writers of the Ohio State Lantern, the university daily newspaper.

The Lantern distinguishes the two varieties of co-eds as those who like to swim and those who don't care to take part in the aquatic sport. Four out of every five of the female students, however, belong to the first class, according to a recent survey.

As a result of the establishment of a swimming pool for co-eds at the university, the dress of the students, so the Lantern claims, has been segregated into two styles with evident contrast to each other. The "four out of every five" are almost unanimous in favor of bobbed hair and declare that the fashion will never go out of style. They believe the well-dressed girl should wear sweaters and skirts and striped hose to cover her athletic figure. The less-behaved athletic-preserving she is also popular with this particular class.

In the opposing class, the "one" who doesn't care for swimming and other forms of athletic participation is the "fed up" victim of short dresses who is also wont to clad herself in silk dresses and spiked heels for classroom wear.

ARGENTINIAN IS AHEAD IN OPEN

Jose Jurado Startles The Gallery By 69 Today For 144 Total

Sandwich, Eng., May 8.—Jose Jurado, sun-baked Latin from far off Argentina, startled the gallery at the British open golf championship qualifying today by winging his way over the course in a 35-34-69, to take the lead.

Jurado shot a 75 in the first half of the round yesterday, giving him a two-day aggregate of 144. His 69 was the low score of the tournament to date, the best previous total being a 71 scored by Bert Hodson this morning. Bill Melhorn, American, led the way through the first day's play with a 72.

Walter Hagen, fashion plate of American golf, and Archie Compston, the rugged Englishman who handed him a terrible lambasting several weeks ago, returned the same totals in finishing the 36-hole qualifying round of the British open golf championship today. Each finished with 153 strokes, Hagen taking 36-41-77 at St. George's, Hagen led Compston by a stroke, 76 to 77, after yesterday's test, which saw "Wild Bill" Melhorn, American, top the first day's field with a 72.

Neither Hagen nor Compston topped even the early finishers, that distinction going to Herbert Jolly, British pro, who shot an effective 73 at Prince's today to bring his total to 147. Tom Barber, Hagen's partner, got a 74.

Soon after Jurado had finished his glittering round, Melhorn came to the club house bulletin board with an 82. However, his leading 72 of yesterday gave him a two-day total of 154, well within the unseen dead line. Gene Sarazen, former American champion, scored much more easily, taking a sound 75 for an aggregate of 152.

Peoria, Ill., May 8.—Five workmen were buried beneath a brick wall when a large building caved in here today.

Four of the men were dragged from beneath debris and were rushed to a hospital in a critical condition.

The fifth man is still buried among the bricks and mortar and is believed dead.

High School Notes

Steve Tarzan opened the senior speeches at assembly today with a talk on "The Unsung Heroes of Finland." The movie industry has progressed rapidly and is now one of America's leading industries. We hear a lot about the stars, but the publicity men, the carpenters, newspaper men, etc., are the unsung heroes of the films. Doubles also deserve lots of praise.

"Success" was the topic of Lela Whinnery's talk. "Some people measure success by achievement, some by money and others by fame. But none of these are true principles."

Perhaps in your own home this problem exists. The husband who starts with promise of greatness—beaten down in the struggle of life—the wife who tries to lift him up from the crowd. Here is the true story of the millions of average men and women told as only the director of "The Big Parade" could tell it. With JAMES MURRAY AND ELEANOR BORDMAN

ABOUT TOWN

Choose a career you like, prepare yourself and persevere and you will almost surely succeed."

Harry Uitchny spoke on "Errors in Type." Some of the humorous mistakes that are seen everyday in newspapers were given. "The wonder is that more mistakes are not made," he said.

Martha Whinnery talked about the "Development of Shorthand." It was started by the Romans. Various systems were started in 1588, the 17th century but all ended in failure. In 1888 Gregg invented his system which is most widely used today.

"Mail Order Houses" was Raymond Volaw's subject. "We must not neglect our home town industries and stores. Loyalty begins at home and we should buy at home for our best advantage," he declared.

1.—“Electric Refrigeration” assures proper preservation of food. The first essential to the proper preservation of food is cold. At temperatures between 50 and 60 degrees, bacteria in food multiplies 400 times faster than at temperatures between 42 and 47 degrees. The danger line for proper food preservation is 50 degrees. The normal temperature in an electric refrigerator is below 50 degrees with a fluctuation of only a few degrees.

2.—“Electric Refrigeration” provides a constant supply of cold dry air in a sanitary cabinet.

3.—“Electric Refrigeration” is convenient, simple, reliable and economical.

4.—“Electric Refrigeration” has passed the experimental stage. 1,200 electric refrigerators were sold in 1917. In 1927 over 500,000 electric refrigerators were sold. This result is only possible because the general public is satisfied that “Electric Refrigeration” is the proper and proved method of refrigeration.

BEERY AND HATTON

They've gone and done it again, those two laugh-provokers—Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton. "Firemen, Save My Child" at the Grand, the third of the Beery-Hatton pictures, looks as though it were destined to go down as one of the great comedies of the winter. What they did in the uniforms of the army in "Behind the Front" and the navy in "We're in the Navy Now" was but a forerunner of the riot they cause in the blue of the fire fighters.

Beery and Hatton again appear in misfit uniforms, without which it would be difficult to picture them, and the uproar they cause in a perfectly nice young fire department, as they "do their stuff" on fire trucks, with hoses, desperately fighting flames, or just as desperately wallowing in mud to rescue the chief's daughter is one long laugh to the final fadeout.

The picture is not merely a string of "gags." It is a well-defined plot with comedy situations that build and keep on building, with each moment provoking new shouts of laughter.

Tom Kennedy is back with the team again. The hard-boiled non-com who made life so miserable for them in the previous pictures, continues to harass them, this time as the fire captain. He makes a splendid foil for Beery and Hatton.

Josephine Dunn, a beautiful young blonde, scores heavily as the fire chief's daughter, the object of the two comedians' romantic interest. Joseph Girard, another veteran of the team's previous pictures, is the fire chief, Walter Goss does nicely in a juvenile role.

"THE CROWD"

"The Crowd," featuring Eleanor Boardman and James Murray in a State.

This big Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture was filmed against backgrounds extending from California to New York, and has scenes on the beaches of both the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans.

It takes in backgrounds from the amusement piers of Venice, California, to Coney Island, includes a honeymoon sequence at Niagara Falls, street scenes from one end of New York City to the other, steamer excursions up the Hudson river, and dramatic action shot against the backgrounds of the great steel mills of Pittsburgh, the big kodak factories of Rochester, the Loop district of Chicago and the great automobile manufacturing plants of Detroit.

Vidor has cut a cross section from American middle class life and placed it on the screen.

The story begins with the life of an ambitious young clerk, employee of an institution which has hundreds more exactly like him. He becomes enamored with a shop girl and the two romantically marry without thought of the future. spend a honeymoon at Niagara Falls, return to New York and fall into the rut occupied by so many young married couples who fail to emerge from it despite all their puny efforts against the circumstances which life throws about them.

The featured roles are played by Eleanor Boardman, long a popular screen player, and James Murray, an extra man and "protégé" of the director of this great picture.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, May 8.—Street costumes are by no means sober this spring. Smart dressmakers are giving them bright touches which will keep them in the fashionable limelight long enough after the usual before-the-races season comes to an end.

Blouses in fine jersey, crepe de Chine and all-over beaded material are a new departure. One recently seen in the rue de la Paix has the waistcoat entirely covered with sequins.

Doucet is showing a charming street costume consisting of a skirt of English wool in black and white checks marked off in plaids by a bright yellow line. It is made with a box-pleated front and plain back, a jacket of Oxford-gray tweed bound with black braid, made with long, rounded revers and one button. The jumper worn with this is of cream-colored crepe de Chine, with a diagonal jabot which ends in a pearl buckle at the side of the waistline.

A trig street costume with a skirt in navy-blue reps has a heavy linen jacket in the natural string color with a narrow belt and blouse of the same shade of crepe de Chine made with a rounded chemise with pearl buttons around the edges and a turnover collar tied with a scarf of blue and beige polka-dotted silk.

Correct Service for the Course Dinner

The five course dinner has become the accepted form for those who wish to serve correctly. High cost of living, diet fads, athletics and outdoor living, automobiles, no-mad life of many fashion leaders, and lessons learned by the great war, are all factors in the changed mode.

While the five courses are less to serve they must be most carefully planned to cover all requirements in daintiness, heartiness and completeness. A number of well-established foreign customs have been adopted by those in the know and add much to the new manner of serving. For instance, the old-fashioned plate of hearty soup is seldom met with today. Instead there will be a clear broth of bouillon in cups, garnished with whipped cream, or macedoine vegetables, a jellied soup, or a small portion of lightly creamed soup.

Serving of the appetizers, or hors d'oeuvres, a custom celebrated in old Russian, Scandinavian countries, Italy and France, often takes the place of the soup. Chefs and home cooks are making the most fascinating plates of the relishes, 20 to 30 in number for a serving that may be used in conjunction with our own half shells, oysters or clams.

The old fish course is most frequently represented by individual casserole dishes of newberg of fish or shell fish, deviled crabs, broiled lobster, terrapin stew, mussels in mock sherry sauce, or moulded fish with mayonnaise. The various fish escalloped in shells are also used.

This brings us to the roast, and not that of the old beef eaters of former times, but one more delicate and very attractively served. Maybe it is a crown roast of lamb or pork filled with a sweetbread farce topped with a fluff of delicately browned mashed potato. Or it may be stuffed roast capon, or Maryland fried chicken, or chicken breasts in a sauce flavory, delicately colored, and as smooth as satin.

Vegetables cooked and dressed to be served on the same plate with the roast, for side plates are a thing of the past. We find instead of being an all-important part of the dinner the potato is frequently side-tracked by the use of Jerusalem artichokes, macaroni timbales, sweet potato soufflé, mashed egg plant, turnip or squash. Nuts, cheese, marshmallows, spices, chives, shallots, minced parsley, celery and onion juice are used in hot flavoryings.

The one law is that the salad must be crisp, cold and come from the salad table but a few minutes before it is eaten. With the salad every conceivable sort of cracker is served, plain, heated, toasted, covered with melted butter, or daintily sandwiched. The cheese course is combined and becomes part of the salad course generally.

Ice cream served in various ways is always popular served with tiny fancy cakes. Puddings are usually rich and chilled, or served with a rich sauce if hot. Elaborate desserts may be used in any form liked.

though simple ones are most popular. Coffee and bonbons are the general finale though we occasionally meet a frozen tea punch with home made, or other, wine flavoring.

Reduce the Acid

In sick stomachs—instantly

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.

Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by Physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875. Adv.

County Track Meet Will Be Held At Reilly Field Saturday

SEVEN SCHOOLS ARE ENTERED IN ANNUAL CLASSIC

Dave Williams Referee Of Silver Jubilee Affair Here

FOURTEEN EVENTS ON THE PROGRAM

Prelims at 9:30 A. M. and Finals at 1:30 P. M. Is Schedule

The Columbia County Track and Field Association will celebrate its silver jubilee Saturday, when the 25th annual meet will be held at Reilly field.

Arrangements to make the meet one of the best in the county's history are being completed. Officials have been appointed, entries will close Wednesday and the stage is all set.

Dave M. Williams, athletic director at Girard high school, has been named referee of the meet. Williams had charge of the meets at Lisbon for the last several years, and earned quite a reputation through the way he handled the meets.

C. K. Foster of Youngstown South High, will officiate as starter, and J. B. Cameron will be head scorer.

Other officials for the meet are: Announcer, Evan Jenkins, Salem; clerks and inspectors, E. O'Neill, C. Purdum and R. Leysch; judges, R. H. Getz, Girard; R. L. Bevan, Youngstown; Rayen, R. G. Ashbaugh, Youngstown South; H. L. Wagner, Petersburg; High, G. L. Wheeler, Warren High; and J. L. Lewis, Girard High.

Prelims at 9:30 a. m. Preliminaries in the meet will start at 9:30 a. m. and finals at 1:30 p. m. Events will be run off according to the schedule fixed by the state association. There will be 14 events.

Salem, Lisbon, East Palestine, Leetonia, East Liverpool, Wellsville, and Columbiana are the schools which will participate. Keen competition is expected by the officials, as each school has been concentrating on winning the county title from Salem, winner for the last three years.

It was decided at a meeting of the county association to award a cup after the meet to the winning team for permanent possession. Salem High, by winning the championship three consecutive years, won permanent possession of the precious cup. The new idea of awarding annually a cup for permanent possession will now be followed. A cup will also be given to the school winning the relay.

E. P. Stonebreaker, superintendent of Leetonia schools, is president of the county association, and Irvin H. Weaver, principal of Columbiana High, is secretary-treasurer.

DRUGGED FOOD IS GIVEN UMEK

Mishawaka, Ind., May 8.—What is believed to be the first direct attempt to foil the chances of one of the leading contestants in C. C. "Cross-Country" Pyle's bunion derby were revealed here today by trainers of Gusto Umek, Italian ace, as the heel and toe caravan moved out of here for Ligonier, 39 miles east of here.

Umek, who in ten days advanced from seventeen to eighth place, suffered violent cramps on the road, and after doctors treated him they pronounced him suffering from a sedative evidently administered in his food.

YANKS TO GIVE INDIANS TEST

Open Four-Game Series In New York Today; Reds Lose To Giants

New York, May 8.—Cleveland, the strongest western team in the American League, will undergo its first real test of the season today when it begins a four-game series with the League-leading Yankees here.

Although they committed a grave social error by dropping a game to the Red Sox, the Indians are the only western outfit to get better than an even break during the eastern invasion. Yesterday they trimmed Boston, 4 to 2.

Connie Mack's Athletics, who made a clean sweep against Detroit, today begin a series with St. Louis which should furnish the low down on the real strength of the Browns. The Browns looked like the real McCoy yesterday in slamming three Washington pitchers for 7 hits, winning 15 to 2 and squaring the series.

Carroll, Detroit's star pitcher, proved he could take it by staying in the box while the Athletics nipped him for seven straight hits in the second inning. Ty Cobb then drove in another run and the A's went on to win by a 10 to 0 count.

Al Thomas of the White Sox tried to come back against the Yankees but was kayoed for the second time during the series. The champions getting an 8 to 5 verdict. Robertson, Meusel and Barrett hit homers.

The National League race continues to be a free-for-all with the League-leading Giants only 2½ games in front of the Cubs and the Cardinals, who are tied for fifth place. The Giants squared the series and he'd on to first place by downing Cincinnati, 5 to 1.

Today the Giants clash with the Pirates, who tied Brooklyn for third place yesterday by smothering Boston, 9 to 4. Despite Bissonette's sixth home run of the season, tying Babe Ruth's record, Brooklyn lost a ding dong contest to St. Louis, 6 to 5.

Brooklyn and the Cardinals broke even in their series. Pittsburgh won three out of four from Boston and the Chicago Cubs made a clean sweep against the Phillies by winning the final game, 7 to 4.

ENGLISH STARS FOR LIVERPOOL

East Liverpool defeated Wellsville in a duel field meet at Wellsville Saturday, 68½ to 53½. Liverpool took eight firsts in the 14 events on the program.

Elmer English, Liverpool's star man, broke the unofficial county record in the 220 yard dash, being clocked in the fast time of 21.3-5 seconds. English also won firsts in the 100 and high jump. Kirkham, Liverpool, took first in the discus and javelin and placed second in the shot.

Wellsville's leading point maker was Terry, winner in the 220 yard low and 120 yard high hurdles.
